Named After ...

Fred Biletnikoff, the Oakland Raiders' career receiving leader and member of the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. An All-America receiver at Florida State, Biletnikoff never experienced a losing season during his 14 seasons with the Raiders and was the Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl XI.

Voting Procedures

Candidates are initially placed on a Watch List by the Foundation. Candidates can be added to the Watch List during the season for meritorious performance. Semifinalists (10), finalists (3), and the recipient are chosen (write-in candidates can be submitted through the vote for the ten semifinalists by voters) by the Biletnikoff Award National Selection Committee, a high profile and geographically-diverse group of 221 journalists, radio and television commentators and announcers, former winners, and former receivers. Trustees of the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc., are not, and have never been, eligible to vote.

Criteria

The Biletnikoff Award candidate must be an active collegiate receiver (any player who receives a pass, regardless of position) at an NCAA Division I FBS school; he must not have been declared ineligible to participate by the NCAA or the candidate's school at the time of any vote of the national selection committee; he must display leadership and self-discipline and have a significant, positive impact on his team's success; and, he must display a commitment to be the best player he can be. Refer to biletnikoffaward.com for player eligibility and voting criteria.

Additional Information

The Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc., the creator and sponsor of the Biletnikoff Award, has presented the award for all 20 years of the award's existence. By 2015, the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation will have provided substantial scholarships to hundreds of North Florida high school seniors who have overcome significant mental, emotional, physical, or environmental barriers to achieve at the highest academic and extracurricular levels. The scholarship recipients attend colleges, trade schools, and universities throughout the United States. The Foundation will award scholarships totaling over $900,000 during the coming year alone, as it did in 2014.

Key Dates

July 15 (Watch List), Nov. 17 (Semifinalists), Nov. 24 (Finalists), Dec. 11 (Announcement on The Home Depot College Football Awards on ESPN), Feb. 7, 2015 (Presentation Banquet, broadcast by ESPN, at University Center Club at the south end zone of Doak Campbell Stadium in Tallahassee, Fla.).

Named After ...

Bronko Nagurski, an All-America defensive tackle and fullback who, in 1929, received the honor at both positions. He went on to play for the Chicago Bears and is a member of the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame.

Voting Procedures

The FWAA All-America committee selects a defensive team with input from the entire membership of more than 1,400. From that team, five finalists are selected and the FWAA All-America committee selects a winner.

Additional Information

Through various events and activities, the Charlotte Touchdown Club raises funds that are distributed annually to outstanding area student-athletes chosen as shining examples in the Charlotte region. Scholarship awards support student-athletes and local athletic programs.

The Football Writers Association of America, a non-profit organization founded in 1941, consists of more than 1,400 men and women who cover college football. The membership includes journalists, broadcasters and publicists, as well as key executives in all the areas that involve the game. The FWAA works to govern areas that include gameday operations, major awards and its annual All-America team.

Named After ...

Legendary coach Frank Broyles. No other head football coach can claim the legacy that Broyles built in selecting, developing and producing great assistant coaches. More than 25 of Broyles' former assistant coaches went on to excel as college or professional football head coaches. Joe Gibbs, Hayden Fry, Johnny Majors, Barry Switzer, Jackie Sherrill, Doug Dickey and Jimmy Johnson are just a few who studied under Coach Broyles. His assistants, as head coaches, have coached in almost 20 percent of all Super Bowls, including six Super Bowl wins in a 14-year span, and have five college national championships, more than 40 conference titles and over 2,000 victories.

Voting Procedures

Each year the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen from more than 1,000 assistant coaches representing 128 Division I FBS teams. Each head coach can nominate one assistant coach from his staff. All nominations are reviewed by, and the five finalists chosen by, an enthusiastic selection committee comprised of nine of college football's finest former head coaches: Frank Broyles, Vince Dooley, Lavell Edwards, Hayden Fry, Don James, Johnny Majors, Dick MacPherson, Barry Switzer and Grant Teaff.

Additional Information

In 2006, The Rotary Club of Little Rock announced that it had selected the Alzheimer's Association for the proceeds of the Broyles Award auction. This tribute is in honor of Coach Broyles' wife of 59 years, Barbara. And, our participation is in thanks for his tireless leadership in calling attention to this terrible disease in an effort to give hope to the families impacted. This is our way of contributing to the needed research funds to find a cure for this disease.

BUTKUS AWARD

Presented to the Nation's Best Linebacker

Established

1985

Presented By

Butkus Foundation
18920 NE 227th Ave.
Brush Prairie, WA 98606

Contact

Ron Arp, President (Media Contact)
Cell 360-601-2991
rarp@butkusfoundation.org

Named After ...

Dick Butkus, the former University of Illinois and Chicago Bears Hall of Fame linebacker who won NFL Rookie of the Year honors, was named to seven NFL All-Star teams and played in eight consecutive Pro Bowls during his nine-year professional career.

Voting Procedures

The Butkus Award is selected by a panel of 51 selectors. In addition to the collegiate trophy winner, selectors also choose a professional and high school trophy winner. Individual votes are kept confidential.

Criteria

Selectors choose the best overall linebacker, with primary consideration given to performance on the field and the athlete's overall character.

Additional Information

The Butkus Award is presented by the Butkus Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose focus is giving back to the community by advancing athletic excellence and supporting health and wellness initiatives. This includes support for an anti-steroid educational initiative (see www.iplayclean.org) and for preventive healthcare through the Dick Butkus Center for Cardiovascular Wellness. Butkus feels so strongly about giving back that the following is inscribed on the Butkus Award trophy: "When a player receives the Butkus Award he will know two things. First, he is recognized as the best of the best linebackers in the country. Second, and in the long run most important, he will understand that this recognition brings a responsibility to serve others by giving back." – Dick Butkus.

Key Dates

July 14 (Watch List), Oct. 27 (Semifinalists), Nov. 24 (Finalists), Week of Dec. 6-9 (Announcement/Presentation Reception on recipient's campus).

Contact

Bill Brady, Executive Director (Media Contact)
Office 817-338-3488
Cell 817-999-7314
bill@daveyobrien.org

Named After ...

Davey O'Brien led the TCU Horned Frogs to an undefeated season in 1938 and their second National Championship. He was the first player ever to win the Heisman, Maxwell and Walter Camp trophies in the same year. O'Brien played for the Philadelphia Eagles before retiring to pursue a career in the FBI. He is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Voting Procedures

The Davey O'Brien is voted on by its National Selection Committee, which is composed of journalists, broadcasters, reporters and commentators from across the country, as well as former winners. The committee votes three times throughout the season, narrowing the field of candidates to semifinalists (Nov. 3), finalists (Nov. 24) and finally the winner (Dec. 11).

Criteria

Quarterbacks from all 128 Division I FBS schools are eligible until the field is narrowed to 16 semifinalists. The selection committee is asked to evaluate candidates on the basis of quarterback skills/athletic ability, academics, reputation as a team player, character, leadership and sportsmanship.

Additional Information

Each year, the Davey O'Brien Foundation recognizes student-athletes for their achievements both on and off the field. Through its High School Scholarship Award, the Foundation recognizes an outstanding high school senior student-athlete in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex with a $30,000 scholarship. Finalists for the High School Award receive $2,500 scholarships. Since 1977, the Foundation has given more than $900,000 to deserving student-athletes across the country.

Key Dates

July 16 (Watch List), Nov. 3 (Semifinalists), Nov. 24 (Finalists), Dec. 11 (Announcement on The Home Depot College Football Awards on ESPN), Feb. 16, 2015 (Presentation Banquet at The Fort Worth Club, Fort Worth, Texas).

Named After ...

John Heisman, who played football at Brown University and the University of Pennsylvania before embarking on a 36-year college coaching career. Heisman is widely regarded as one of the game's greatest coaches and innovators.

Voting Procedures

929 Heisman electors comprised of 870 members of the electronic and print media, all living former Heisman winners, and one overall fan vote.

Criteria

The Heisman Memorial Trophy is awarded annually to the outstanding college football player in the United States by the Heisman Trophy Trust. The recipient of the award must be a bona fide student of an accredited college or university including the United States academies. The recipient must be in compliance with the bylaws defining an NCAA student-athlete.

Additional Information

The Heisman Memorial Trophy annually recognizes the outstanding college football player whose performance best exhibits the pursuit of excellence with integrity. Winners epitomize great ability combined with diligence, perseverance, and hard work. The Heisman Trophy Trust ensures the continuation and integrity of this award. The Trust, furthermore, has a charitable mission to support amateur athletics and to provide greater opportunities to the youth of our country. Our goal through these charitable endeavors is for the Heisman Trophy to symbolize the fostering of a sense of community responsibility and service to our youth, especially those disadvantaged or afflicted. All assets of the Trust beyond the expense of maintaining the annual presentation of the Heisman Memorial Trophy are reserved for such charitable causes. The Trustees, who all serve pro bono, are guided by a devotion to college football and are committed to community service and the valued tradition which the Trophy represents.

Jim Thorpe, a first-team Walter Camp All-America selection in 1911 and 1912. He won gold medals in the decathlon and pentathlon at the 1912 Olympics, played professional baseball, and in 1920, was elected the first president of what would later become the National Football League.

Voting Procedures

A watch list of outstanding defensive backs is determined at the beginning of the football season. The Jim Thorpe Association screening committee narrows the field to 10 semifinalists during the first week in November before selecting three finalists the week before Thanksgiving. The names of the finalists are submitted to a national selection committee consisting of former players, coaches, journalists and representatives of the major conferences to determine the winner.

Additional Information

The association manages the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and several charity events in cooperation with the NFL Players Association. Its "Bright Path" youth program for children 18 and younger includes All-Star basketball and football games in Oklahoma City and Tulsa, several scholarship programs, Oklahoma's outstanding high school senior award and the "Bright Path Club" for elementary school children.

Named After ...

John Mackey, only the second true tight end to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He is regarded as one of the all-time greats to ever have played the position. A graduate of Syracuse University, Mackey played in the NFL for 10 years. He was elected to the Pro Bowl five times, was a three-time All-NFL player and played in two Super Bowls with the Baltimore Colts.

Voting Procedures

The Mackey Award is voted on by a national selection committee comprised of sports journalists, football experts and former NFL tight ends. The committee votes three times throughout the college football season to determine a winner. A list of selection committee members and details of the voting process can be found on the award's official website.

Criteria

The John Mackey Award is presented to the best tight end in the Division I FBS. He must demonstrate outstanding athletic abilities, be in good academic standing and exhibit positive sportsmanship qualities.

Cell 214-870-6516
tiger@fwaa.com

Named After ...

Dr. John H. Outland, an All-America tackle at the University of Pennsylvania in 1897 and the benefactor of the trophy.

Voting Procedures

The FWAA All-America Committee selects a 25-man team with input from its entire membership. From that team, three finalists are selected from among offensive and defensive interior linemen. The committee then selects the winner from the three finalists.

Criteria

Candidates must be interior linemen (centers, tackles or guards) on offense or defense. Ends are not eligible.

Additional Information

The Football Writers Association of America, a non-profit organization founded in 1941, consists of more than 1,400 men and women who cover college football. The membership includes journalists, broadcasters and publicists, as well as key executives in all the areas that involve the game. The FWAA works to govern areas that include gameday operations, major awards and its annual All-America team.

Key Dates

July 10 (Watch List), Nov. 20 (Semifinalists), Nov. 24 (Finalists), Dec. 11 (Announcement on The Home Depot College Football Awards on ESPN), Jan. 15, 2015 (Presentation Banquet at DoubleTree Hotel, Omaha, Neb.).

Named After ...

Ray Guy, College and Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, and the only pure punter ever to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft. He was an All-American at Southern Mississippi, and was selected to seven Pro Bowls during his 14-year career with the Oakland Raiders.

Voting Procedures

A national voting body of Division I FBS coaches, sports information directors, national media and former Ray Guy Award winners select the three finalists and the winner.

Criteria

Statistical criteria includes total yardage, net average, total average, number of punts downed or kicked out of bounds inside the opponent's 20-yard line, and team net punting. In addition, a player's character and academic performance are considered.

Additional Information

Established in 1991, the Augusta Sports Council is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to marketing Augusta, Georgia and the surrounding communities as a destination for sporting events. The Sports Council supports and hosts more than 65 events annually, generating more than $20 million in direct visitor spending. The Ray Guy Award was created in 2000 to honor Thomson, Ga., native Ray Guy.

RIMINGTON TROPHY

Presented to the Nation's Premier Center

Established

2000

Presented By

Boomer Esiason Foundation
483 10th Ave., Suite 300
New York, NY 10018

Contact

Michelle Pelini (Media Contact)
Office 646-292-7946
Cell 859-628-4040
mpelini@esiason.org

Named After ...

Dave Rimington, the only two-time winner of the Outland Trophy (1981 and '82) and considered by many as the best college lineman of all time. Rimington was also the 1982 Lombardi Award winner, a two-time All-American, and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Rimington went on to play seven years in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles from 1983-90. He currently serves as President of the Boomer Esiason Foundation which raises money for the fight against Cystic Fibrosis.

Voting Procedures

While more than a dozen All-America teams are selected annually, the Rimington Trophy committee uses these three prestigious teams to determine a winner: Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sporting News, and Football Writers Association of America.

Because the selectors of these three All-America teams can place centers in a "mix" of offensive linemen that includes guards and tackles, their 11-man first teams can often have two centers. The Rimington Trophy committee's policy is to count all players that play primarily the center position for their respective teams as centers, even though they may be listed as guards or tackles on the four All-America teams.

The center with the most first team votes will be determined the winner. If there is a tie with first team votes, then the center with the most second team votes will win. If there is still a tie, the winner will be determined by a majority vote from the Rimington Trophy committee.

Additional Information

All proceeds from the Rimington Trophy aid in the fight against Cystic Fibrosis. To date, the Rimington Trophy has raised over $2.5 million for the cystic fibrosis community. In addition to the award for the most outstanding center at the Division I FBS level, the Rimington Trophy committee also recognizes the top centers from Division I FCS, Division II, Division III and the NAIA. In 2005, the Rimington Trophy presented the inaugural President Gerald R. Ford Legends Award, which recognizes former college or pro football centers who have achieved excellence in the football community or through philanthropic or business endeavors.
