College football's top kicking award, the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award presented by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission recognizes three of the top kickers each week from FBS division teams as the "Stars of the Week."

Sophomore Jeremiah Detmer took over the national lead in field goals made with his 5-for-5 performance in the University of Toledo's 29-23 victory over previously undefeated Cincinnati on Saturday in Toledo. The Hilliard, Ohio native connected from 47, 43, 42, 25 and 20 yards to bring his total for the season to 18-of-23 on field goals. He added two PATs and has yet to miss an extra point attempt in 32 tries. With Detmer's help in knocking off the 21st ranked team in the country, Toledo defeated its first ranked opponent since 2004, and improved to 7-1 for their best start since 2001. Detmer's 86 points are the second-most in the nation by a kicker.

Ross Martin became the first freshman kicker in Duke University history to kick four field goals in a game in the Blue Devils' 33-30 defeat of rival North Carolina in Durham on Saturday. The win made Duke bowl-eligible for the first time since 1994. Martin scored from 43, 30, 28 and 20 yards and was 3-for-3 on extra point tries. The Solon, Ohio native scored 15 points in the game to set the new school freshmen record and extended his team-leading scoring total to 74 points. His season totals improved to 14-of-15 on field goals, a 93.3% accuracy mark bested only by the six kickers who have yet to miss, and a perfect 32-for-32 on extra point tries.

Texas Christian University dropped a heart-breaking 56-53 triple-overtime decision to Texas Tech in Fort Worth on Saturday, but freshman kicker Jaden Oberkrom more than did his part. The Arlington, Texas native changed the Horned Frog and Big 12 record books, going 6-for-6 on field goals to set both the school and conference single-game marks. He scored from 45, 42, 41, 38, and twice from 32 yards. His 23 points set a new single-game TCU record for kick-scoring and moved him to 72 points on the season, eighth in the nation. Oberkrom is 14-of-16 on field goals this season and has not missed a PAT in 30 attempts.

The Lou Groza Award will be presented as part of the Home Depot ESPN College Football Awards in Orlando, Fla. on Thursday, December 6th. The three finalists will be feted at the 21st Annual Lou Groza Awards Banquet on Tuesday, December 4th at the Kravis Center in West Palm Beach, Fla.
