

Raccoons – True or False

Raccoons are mammals (have fur, backbones, babies drink milk). True / False

Raccoons live in holes underground. True / False

Raccoons can swim. True / False

Raccoons are nocturnal (sleep during the day). True / False

Raccoons eat both plants and meat. True / False

Raccoons can grow to 100 pounds. True / False

Raccoons babies have no fur when they are born. True / False

Raccoons have no enemies (predators). True / False

Raccoons are friendly and safe to pet. True / False

Raccoons eat dog food and cat food. True / False

Raccoons are the Florida state mammal. True / False