

Palm Healthcare awards $2 million to nonprofits

/ November 08, 2017

Palm Healthcare Foundation has awarded nearly $2 million to local nonprofit organizations.

The funding will support the increased health and well-being of Palm Beach County residents.

The healthcare foundation has been working collaboratively to solve critical healthcare issues for 17 years, noted its president and CEO, Patrick McNamara. "We will continue to push the boundaries to lead change for better health," he said in a statement.

Palm Healthcare Foundation's grants were awarded to more than 20 organizations focused on behavioral health, diabetes, family caregiving, nursing advancement and other special projects.

Grant recipients include Achievement Center for Children and Families Healthier Delray Beach; Community Partners-Healthier Neighbors; Community Partners-Healthier Lake Worth; Leading Change for Better Brain Health Campaign; El Sol Neighborhood Resource Center; Genesis Community Health; Jupiter Medical Center/ Healthier Jupiter; Pathways to Prosperity-Healthier Boynton Beach; Wellington Cares; Palm Healthcare Foundation nursing scholarships/ George Snow Scholarship Fund; Palm Beach Atlantic University; American Cancer Society; Cleveland Clinic Florida; El Sol Neighborhood Resource Center; Palm Healthcare Pavilion; Hanley Foundation; Health Council of Southeast Florida; School District of Palm Beach County; South Florida Science Center and Aquarium; The Hospice Foundation of Palm Beach County; University of Miami Miller School of Medicine; and Youth for Christ. |